Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

Created in 2012, the Natural Areas Conservancy (NAC) is a non-profit organization devoted to restoring and conserving New York City's 20,000 acres of woodlands and coastal areas. We preserve and promote ecological diversity and resilience across the five boroughs in close partnership with the New York City Department of Parks & Recreation (NYC Parks). Driving the NAC's work is the recognition that natural areas are increasingly vital to sustaining air quality, improving public health, providing New Yorkers with access to nature, and strengthening our communities. Our long-term goal for New York City is to bring our natural assets on par with the great cultural amenities of the city. We seek to ensure that residents and visitors enjoy world-class recreation opportunities, while simultaneously enjoying the societal benefits that our natural parkland provides, including cleaner air and water.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

Ensure Healthy Forests: A joint project of the NAC and the NYC Department of Parks and Recreation (NYC Parks), the Forest Management Framework (FMF) for New York City is a strategic and comprehensive plan to bolster and protect New York City's vital urban forests. It is the first citywide vision for this critical piece of infrastructure. The plan is intended to guide restoration, management, and community engagement for 7,300 acres of New York City's forested parkland. The 25- year plan includes the process, costs, steps, recommendations, best practices, and goals for forest management in New York City. It marks the culmination of six years of research, data collection, and analysis by NAC scientists. In tandem with the FMF, we have developed an interactive web-based tool to help inform the public of New York City's forested parkland, and allow them to explore nature and understand the condition of these vital areas.

National Network: Representing more than half a million acres, urban forested natural areas are a critical public asset. These valuable areas have the potential to provide high-quality access to nature for millions of city-dwellers, especially those in low-income areas. They also play an important role in mitigating climate change and preserving local biodiversity. The NAC engaged with 124 organizations in 111 US cities and 40 states through the development and distribution of a web-based survey about the care of urban forested natural areas. Using the answers from the survey, we are identifying successful programs and initiatives in urban forest management and determining which cities are well suited to engage in the second phase of our project.

Trails: The NAC is striving to ensure that every New Yorker has access not just to a park, but to a place where they can connect with wild nature. Developing a comprehensive trail system will open up quality, safe recreational spaces citywide. In 2018, we formalized 6 miles of trails in 5 parks and improved more than 25 miles of trails in 20 parks throughout New York City.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Form 990 Review Process

The Natural Areas Conservancy shared a draft 990 with its board members before filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

NAC has a board approved conflicts of interest policy. Each board member must fill out an annual declaration stating they had no conflicts or identifying the nature of their interested party transactions; employees do so at the start of their employment.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Review & Approval Process - CEO & Top Management

Each year, the executive committee reviews comparable salaries based on a recognized study and reviews the performance of the executive director to determine if the existing salary falls within these ranges. After a deliberation of this matter, a new proposed salary and benefit package is voted on. The minutes of the board of directors reflect the nature of this process.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 19 - Other Organization Documents Publicly Available

The disclosure of governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are available to the public upon request.
